

A GROUP OF ELLSWORTH'S ZOUAVES.—Ephraim E. Ellsworth organized in Chicago, in 1860, a regiment of militia, gave it the zouave uniform and taught it the zouave drill—both being adopted from the French regiments in Algeria. Portions of regiment gave exhibition drills in the northern cities the summer before the war, and created considerable enthusiasm for the new tactics.